

100 at 100 FAQ

Join the City of Redmond's year-long Centennial celebrating Redmond's pioneering spirit—past-present-and future.

The City was founded on December 31, 1912. The Redmond community is partnering with the City in planning many fun and informative celebrations throughout the year.

Q: What is 100 at 100?

A: We're looking for 100 businesses to contribute $100 at the Community Sponsor level. Your $100 contribution signifies your commitment to the City of Redmond and the Centennial celebration. Be a part of the Redmond sponsorship community, be one of 100 Redmond businesses and partners.

Q: What does your $100 buy you?

A: Each 100 @ $100 sponsor will be recognized on the Centennial website.

Q: Any advertising included in sponsorship?

A: Each 100 @ $100 sponsor name will be included in the insert/event program and in a minimum of one (1) Centennial ad featured in the Redmond Reporter and other Eastside papers.

Q: What else does the $100 buy?

A: Onsite Exposure and Announcements! Each 100 @ $100 sponsor will be recognized in live announcements made at City Hall Campus during the Centennial Celebration, Saturday, December 1, 2012.

Q: How do you sign up?

A: Contact Nicole Weibe at nwiebe@redmond.gov
